STRIKE OF BUILDERS.

Seely Accused of Defrauding the City by False Charges.

JOHNSTOWN'S NEW GOVERNMENT.

Last Hours of Taylor, the Murderer of Drover McCausland.

THE ECCENTRICITY OF ELECTRICITY

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. WHEELING, W. VA., April 8 .- The building trade strike goes on here as steadily as of yore. Wilson & Co. have three new men at work, Beltz, Flading & Co. three, and J. A. Holiiday & Son have not in-creased their number. Klievis, Craft & Co.

have made no effort to start their mill as vet, but say they will at once. The union carpenters are all firm, and there is as yet no sign of disintegration in their ranks. The promise of the President that the Brotherhood will put up the cash to carry on the fight has braced up many of the weak-kneed members and has made those solid who, it was feared, were wavering. The managers it was feared, were wavering. The managers all say they are sorry that they cannot get their old men back, and say they would prefer them to any new men they might get. They say, however, that the Exchange Committee did all in its power to get the thing settled, and do not blame that body for discharging the Conference Committee. A manager said to-day he expected to see a repetition of the strike of the year 1885 when the nailers went out, and the mills gained one man after another until a compromise was effected, and the old men and the new went to work, and are doing so to-day, side by side in the same mill.

A special from Youngstown says; Pending a settlement of the demand made for an advance in wages, none of the journeymen tailors were settlement of the demand made for an advance in wages, none of the journeymen tailors were at work to-day. The merchant tailors appointed a committee of five to meet a similar committee of the journeymen, who were scleeted at a meeting held this afternoon, in order if nossible to adjust the differences. President Ray, of the Journeymen's Union, said this afternoon: "If a strike can be avoised it will be, and if the committee appointed do not effect an agreement the union will urge that the matter be settled by arbitration."

HIS LAST DAYS.

Zuch Taylor Bears Up Remarkably as the Hour Draws Near.

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. WAYNESBURG, April 8 .- Zach Taylor spen the last few days and hours of his life chatting with callers, talking freely about things that occurred while he was a free man, eating and sleeping as he would under the most ordinary circumstances. It was the general opinion that he would weaken after George Clark was executed. Taylor heard some expressions of this kind, and he seemed to take a cool satisfaction in living down the prediction. He would frequently ask: "How do the people think I am bearing up now?" Upon being told that they thought be was bearing up well, a pleased look would come over his face, and he would say: I think I am bearing up better than George

"I think I am bearing up better than George Clark did."

Rev. Mr. Maxwell has been to see him very often since he arrived, and Taylor has expressed himself as willing to die. This afternoon he talked very calmly to Rev. Mr. Maxwell, giving him certain directions as to his funeral. He also desired certain parties to be present at his execution, telling them he wanted them to heat what he had to say and that they could retire before the drop fell if they desired.

Jasper and Bill Taylor arrived here from Masontown this evening to care for the body Jasper and Bill Taylor arrived here from Masontown this evening to care for the bod and take it to that place. The funeral will be held on Thursday at 11 o'clock in the mornin from that place. The services will be corducted by Rev. Maxwell. The erection of the scaffold and other details concerning the execution will be attended to after midnight as the Sheriff desires to keep everything as quiet a possible. Since 1885 he has sold liquor on the sly for a livelihood. sly for a livelihood.

The crime for which he will suffer death to morrow was the murder of William McCaus land, the Allegheny drover, and the story is to well known to be repeated.

JOHNSTOWN IS HAPPY.

The New City Government is Elected Wit Much Eclat. SEPECIAL TELEGRAL TO THE DISPATCH.

JOHNSTOWN, April 8.-The vigorous poloutlined by Mayor Rose in his inaugural address is the subject of much discussion, an meets with hearty approval. A progressive spirit seems to prevail and a bright future is predicted for the new city. The remarks of Mr. A. J. Moxham, the president of the Johnson works, who said in his speech that this city would yet be a place of 150,000 inhabitants, are considered of especial significance, and are be-lieved to indicate a large addition to the works of that corporation in the near future. Notwithstanding the inauspicious weather during the forenoon, there was a very large turnout in the parade in the afternoon yesterday. The column was somewhat over half an hour in passing a given point. The fire company atpassing a given point. The fire company attracted much attention, and the new engine and apparatus, all purchased since the flood, drew forth much praise. The Vigilant Company, of the Southside, had the only relic of the flood in line, that being the wreck of their old fire engine. The industrial display of the Johnson Company was quite extensive and very creditable. Merchants and artisans also made engine adjuster and their motives with made quite a display, and their motices, such as "We will help build our new city," were quite cheering. Altogether the day was one of unusual excitement and interest, and the city government starts out under very auspicious

LOOKS BAD FOR HIM. Buying Goods and Paying for Them With the

City's Checks. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1 WHEELING, April 8.-The Seeley gas pipe investigation was resumed last night and showed a pretty bad state of affairs. It was proved that during 1886 and 1887 Oscar Seeley, then President of the Board of Gas Trustees sent out orders for pipe in the name of the city, got it at the wharf or depots, took it to his shops, marked the bills "O. K." and then signed a city check for its payment. He then signed the minutes of the board approving the bills. In addition to this it was shown that Seeley got places for his employes at the gas works, got places for his employes at the gas works, that he used gas works' men for his private business and to top the whole thing, did a big lot of work for the city in the face of a State statute which expressly forbids such work by a member of the board, and made him liable to criminal proceedings for engaging in it, with a fine and imprisonment as the punishment. The investigation lasted until a late hour.

Seeley declined to make a defense, and the committee will report to Council the facts and recommend legal proceedings in the case.

DEMAND AN INCREASE.

Miners at Smithton Will Strike if Their Demands Are Not Conceded. PEPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.

SCOTTDALE, April 8.-The scale of wages which the Smithton miners have presented to the operators has just been made public. It calls for the Columbus rate for coal mining, which is 75 cents per ton for run of mine, or 61% cents per ton on a 90-cent basis. For coke drawing 61 cents per 100 bushels charged is demanded.

One of the superintendents of the Smithton works was seen to-day and said the miners' scale was unreasonable and the operators would hardly sign it. The men are very determined in their efforts for the scale, and intimate they will strike if it is not signed.

Labor leaders are still at work organizing Rainey's works. It is supposed the employes will be called out on strike shortly after the convention on Wednesday. The Southwest Coal and Coke Company to-day gave notice to the Knights of Labor that their works, of 1,079 ovens, would be operated but five days next week because of the scarcity of orders.

JOHNSTOWN, April 8.-A Hungarian named Pullman, who occupied a cell next to Carter, the murderer, who will be hanged to-morrow, hanged himself to the door of his cell in the Ebensburg jail to-day, by fastening his suspenders around his neck. He was not discovered until life was extinct. MORTGAGING THE ROAD. ured for the Completion of th Line to Delphos.

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. AKRON, April 8.—J. W. Holliday has filed with the County Recorder the mortgage executed by the Pittsburg, Akron and Western Railroad to the American Loan and Trust Com-Mailroad to the American Loan and Trust Com-pany, of New York, to secure funds for the con-struction of its line from Akron westward to Delphos. The mortgage, which is signed by J. D. Callery, President, and W. A. Lynch, Score-tary, for the company, provides for the issuance of 5 per cent gold bonds to run for 40 years. The amount in all is $3,630,000, and constitutes a first lien on the property, and together with the money put in by the Pittsburg people will be ample for the new line.

DESERVES HIS PATE.

Andrews' Confession Shows Him to Be Thoroughly Bad Man.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BELLEFONTE, PA., April 8.—Alfred James Andrews is to be hanged here to-morrow for the murder of Clara Price, which he is said to have committed on November 27, 1889. Fearing detection of his attempted crime he shot ber, causing instant death. Over 160 witnesses were examined, Andrews himself being put on the stand, but nothing was elicited from him.
